

Manahel al-Otaibi believed in Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman's promises of reform. She spoke up for women's rights – and is now in prison for it. Join the call to free her. #FreeManahel

Manahel al-Otaibi is serving five years in Malaz Prison for peaceful expression. She has been beaten, held in solitary confinement, and denied contact with her family. Saudi women deserve freedom. #FreeManahel

Saudi fitness instructor and social media influencer Manahel al-Otaibi faces five years in prison and a five-year travel ban – just for expressing herself online. Join me in demanding her release. Sign the petition:

<https://www.globalcitizen.org/en/action/release-manahel-al-otaibi/> #FreeManahel

Manahel al-Otaibi, a young Saudi woman, dared to dream of greater freedoms for women in her country. For that, she's been unjustly imprisoned and mistreated. #FreeManahel

Peaceful activism is not terrorism. Saudi fitness instructor Manahel al-Otaibi is in prison for challenging male guardianship laws and expressing herself online. Join the call to #FreeManahel now: <https://www.globalcitizen.org/en/action/release-manahel-al-otaibi/>